Article 1: Establishment of a Europe of Democracies

1. Reflecting the will of the peoples and the States of Europe to build a common future, this Treaty establishes a framework for co-operation on cross-frontier matters, in which the member states cannot effectively legislate on their own.
2. The Europe of Democracies shall respect the national identities of its Member States, their constitutions, their legislative assemblies and national sovereignty.
3. The Europe of Democracies shall be open to all European States, which have signed and which respect the European Convention for Human Rights
