Article 32bis: Publication and entry into force

1. European laws and European framework laws adopted in accordance with the legislative procedure shall be signed by the President of the European Parliament and by the President of the Council. In other cases they shall be signed by the President of the Council. European Union laws and European Union framework laws shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Union and shall enter into force on the date specified in them or, in the absence of such a stated date, on the twentieth day following that of their publication.
 2. European regulations, ~~of the Commission or of the Council~~ European directives and European decisions which do not specify those to whom they are addressed or which are addressed to all Member States shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Union and shall enter into force on the date specified in them or, in the absence of such a stated date, on the twentieth day following that of their publication.
 3. Other European decisions shall be notified to those to whom they are addressed and shall take effect upon such notification.

Explanation :

Technical correction of the names of both legislative acts mentioned in para. 1 and of the non-legislative act mentioned in para. 3.

European regulations shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Union irrespective of the fact whether it is the Commission or the Council which adopts them. The reference to these institutions should therefore be deleted in para. 2.

Insert the European directive also in para 2. of this Article (see proposed amendments to Articles 24, 26, 27 and 32).
