Article 7: Citizen in the Europe of Democracies

1. The Europe of Democracies respects the national citizenship.
2. Citizens in the Europe of Democracies shall enjoy the rights and be subject to the duties provided for in this agreement. They shall have:
  - the right to move and reside freely within the territory of the Member States under observance of the legislation of the member states;
  - the right to vote and to stand as a candidate in elections to the European Parliament and in municipal elections in their Member State of residence under the same conditions as nationals of that State;
  - the right to enjoy, in the territory of a third country in which the Member State of which they are a national is not represented, the protection of the diplomatic and consular authorities of any Member State on the same conditions as the nationals of that State;
  - the right to petition the European Parliament, to apply to the Ombudsman, and to write to the institutions and advisory bodies of the Union in any of the Union's languages and to obtain a reply in the same language.
3. These rights shall be exercised in accordance with the conditions and limits defined by this Treaty and by the measures adopted to give it effect.
