Art. 7.1.

The principle of equality (second sentence) is also enshrined in the Charter.

The exact meaning of "equality before the law" should be made clear. Art. 6 refers to "application of the Constitution", while Art. 7.1 mentions "equality before the law". Laws are internal national acts.

Art. 7.2.

The first sentence mentions the rights and duties of EU citizens, but the following text defines only the rights.

The provisions of Art. 7.2 and Art. 3 are closely related and should be put together in a single clause.
