III-7:

A European law or framework law (of the Council= delete) shall determine the detailed arrangements for exercising the right, referred to in article I-8, for every Union citizen to vote and to stand as a candidate in municipal elections and elections to the European Parliament in their Member State of residence. (The Council shall act unanimously after consulting the European Parliament= delete) These arrangements may provide for derogations where warranted by problems specific to a Member State.

The right to vote and to stand in elections to the European Parliament shall be exercised without prejudice to [Article 190 (4)] and measures adopted for its implementation.

Explanation (if any) : The European Parliament should have his full legislative rights in all cases concerning the European Parliament, also in the voting procedures of its members.
