3. In the event of one or more Member States being confronted by an emergency situation characterised by a sudden inflow of nationals of third countries, the Council, on a proposal from the Commission, may adopt European regulations or decisions comprising provisional measures for the benefit of the Member State(s) concerned. It shall act after consulting the European Parliament. The regions or local authorities when they are primarily responsible for managing the inflow, must be involved in preparing such decisions.

Explanation:

The involvement of the Regions and local authorities must be specified in all stages of these policies.
