Article L (Principle of openness)

„1. When enhanced cooperation is being established, it shall be open to all Member States, subject to compliance with any conditions of participation which may be laid down in the authorising decision. It shall also be open to them at any other time, subject to compliance with the acts already adopted within that framework, in addition to any such conditions.

The Commission and the Member States participating in enhanced cooperation shall ensure that they ~~facilitate~~ encourage and promote by appropriate means the participation by as many Member States as possible.”
